NSF Workshop on Biologically –Enabled Wireless Networks Design and Modeling
July 19-20 in Arlington, VA

Hotel
Hilton Arlington
950 North Stafford Street
Arlington, Virginia 22203
1-703-528-6000

Contacts:
Kyle Pugliese
Kyle.Pugliese@ihrco.com
(703) 812-5103 direct

The conference will be held in the Masters Ballroom - Rooms 3, 4 and 5 (Picasso, DaVinci and Matisse) on the map, which is enclosed on the next page.

Important: Please make sure you have an ID and a credit card to present when checking in at the hotel. While your card will not be charged with the cost of the room, they will need something on hand for any other incidentals you may want (i.e. phone calls, movie rentals, room service, etc.).

Expense Reimbursements
For any reimbursements, please fill out the form located at the link below:

Please submit them to:

Kirsten Andersen
College of Computer and Information Science
Northeastern University
Room 202, Building WVH
360 Huntington Avenue,
Boston, MA, 02115

Email (to inform us of the submission): kirsten@ccs.neu.edu

Please keep copies of all of your receipts.

Hotel Description:
The hotel is conveniently located in the Ballston community, just minutes from I-66, I-95 and I-395. The nation’s capital and Ronald Reagan National Airport are both just four miles away. The White House, Washington Monument and many other museums and historical attractions are all less than 15 minutes away.

Hilton Arlington is a 100% non-smoking hotel and has standard amenities including high-speed Internet access, premium cable package and the Hilton Serenity Collection. Other hotel amenities include an executive club level, Hilton HHonors® Points and Miles®, an on-site restaurant and lounge, and convenient underground parking. There is also a covered skyway that connects the hotel to Ballston Commons Shopping Mall. Washington Ballston Metro Station is located directly below the hotel.
Hotel Meeting Space

The conference will be held in rooms 3, 4 and 5 on the map (Picasso, DaVinci and Matisse)